3 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
4 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

6 Jacob Morgan,

7 Plaintiff,

8 v.

9 Federal Express Corporation,

10 Defendant.

Case No. 2:25-cv-00308-RFB-DJA

11 Order

12 Pro se Plaintiff Jacob Morgan filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis. (ECF 13 No. 1). However, Plaintiff's application is missing certain information. The Court thus denies 14 Plaintiff's application without prejudice.

15 I. Discussion.

16 Under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1), a plaintiff may bring a civil action "without prepayment of 17 fees or security therefor" if the plaintiff submits a financial affidavit that demonstrates the 18 plaintiff "is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor." The Ninth Circuit has recognized 19 that "there is no formula set forth by statute, regulation, or case law to determine when someone 20 is poor enough to earn [in forma pauperis] status." Escobedo v. Applebees, 787 F.3d 1226, 1235
21 (9th Cir. 2015). An applicant need not be destitute to qualify for a waiver of costs and fees, but 22 he must demonstrate that because of his poverty he cannot pay those costs and still provide 23 himself with the necessities of life. Adkins v. E.I DuPont de Nemours & Co., 335 U.S. 331, 339
(1948).

24 The applicant's affidavit must state the facts regarding the individual's poverty "with 25 some particularity, definiteness and certainty." United States v. McQuade, 647 F.2d 938, 940
26 (9th Cir. 1981) (citation omitted). If an individual is unable or unwilling to verify his or her 27 poverty, district courts have the discretion to make a factual inquiry into a plaintiff's financial 28 status and to deny a request to proceed in forma pauperis. See, e.g., Marin v. Hahn, 271

1 Fed.Appx. 578 (9th Cir. 2008) (finding that the district court did not abuse its discretion by
2 denying the plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis because he "failed to verify his
3 poverty adequately"). "Such affidavit must include a complete statement of the plaintiff's
4 personal assets." Harper v. San Diego City Admin. Bldg., No. 16-cv-00768 AJB (BLM), 2016
5 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 192145, at *1 (S.D. Cal. June 9, 2016). Misrepresentation of assets is sufficient
6 grounds for denying an in forma pauperis application. Cf. Kennedy v. Huibregtse, 831 F.3d 441,
7 443-44 (7th Cir. 2016) (affirming dismissal with prejudice after litigant misrepresented assets on 8 in forma pauperis application).

9 On his application, Plaintiff does not explain whether he is employed in response to 10 question 1. He claims to make no money from employment, have no bills, have no property of 11 any kind, have no dependents, and to have no debts. On the docket, Plaintiff includes an address.
12 The Court takes judicial notice of the fact that public records reveal that the address is a house.
13 Plaintiff does not provide any details in the application regarding how he pays rent, how he pays
14 utilities or other bills, or how he lives considering his claim to have no money and no bills. The 15 Court finds that Plaintiff has omitted information from the application. As a result, the Court
16 cannot determine whether Plaintiff qualifies for in forma pauperis status.

17 The Court will give Plaintiff one opportunity to file a complete in forma pauperis
18 application. The Court further orders that Plaintiff may not respond with a zero or "not 19 applicable" in response to any question without providing an explanation for each of the 20 questions. Plaintiff also may not leave any questions blank. Plaintiff must describe each source 21 of money that he receives, state the amount he received, and what he expects to receive in the 22 future.

23 The Court denies Plaintiff's in forma pauperis application without prejudice. The Court
24 gives Plaintiff 30 days to file an updated application. Plaintiff must fully answer all applicable
25 questions and check all applicable boxes. Plaintiff may alternatively pay the filing fee in full.
26 Since the Court denies Plaintiff's application, it does not screen the complaint at this time.

27
28 ///

1 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma
2 pauperis (ECF No. 1) is denied without prejudice.

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff has until April 24, 2025, to file an updated
4 application to proceed in forma pauperis as specified in this order or pay the filing fee. Failure to 5 timely comply with this order may result in a recommendation to the district judge that this case
6 be dismissed.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of Court is kindly directed to send Plaintiff
8 a copy of this order and of the short form application to proceed in forma pauperis and its 9 instructions.¹
